Whistleblower *

When an employee has a belief the ESD has violated any federal, state or local, law, rule or regulation; has engaged in mismanagement, gross waste of funds or abuse of authority; or created a substantial and specific danger to public health and safety by its actions, and an employee then discloses or plans to disclose such information, it is an unlawful employment practice for an ESD to:

1. Discharge, demote, transfer, reassign or take disciplinary action against an employee or threaten any of the previous actions.

2. Withhold work or suspend an employee.

3. Discriminate or retaliate against an employee with regard to promotion, compensation or other terms, conditions or privileges of employment.

4. Direct an employee or to discourage an employee to not disclose or to give notice to the ESD prior to making any disclosure.

5. Prohibit an employee from discussing, either specifically or generally, the activities of the state or any agency of or political subdivision in the state, or any person authorized to act on behalf of the state or any agency of or political subdivision in the state, with:

    a. Any member of the Legislative assembly;
    b. Any Legislative committee staff acting under the direction of any member of the Legislative assembly; or
    c. Any member of the elected governing body of a political subdivision in the state or any elected auditor of a city, county or metropolitan service district.

The ESD will use the complaint process in [[1]administrative regulation KL-AR - Public Complaints Procedure] to address any alleged violations of this policy.

The ESD shall deliver a written or electronic copy of this policy to each staff member.
