Tutoring or Student Evaluation for Pay

It is the policy of the Board that teachers or evaluators are not to tutor or conduct evaluations for remuneration for any students whom they have been assigned to work with. No tutoring or evaluation for which a professional receives a fee will be allowed in a ESD building or on ESD time and no ESD-owned materials or equipment may be used.

Exceptions to this policy are as follows:

1. Private lessons, such as music lessons and other enrichment activities, which are clearly beyond the scope of the regular curriculum, may be given for remuneration outside of district time and away from district buildings;
2. Teachers may tutor for remuneration outside of normal work hours students eligible for homebound services, according to procedures established by the superintendent.
